

The Department of Psychology & Psi Chi Club Presents
FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY IN THE 21st CENTURY:
EXPANDING APPLICATIONS OF PSYCHOLOGY AND THE LAW
Tuesday, February 23rd @ 3:00pm

Speaker Laurence Miller, Ph.D.

Discuss some roles of psychologists in the civil and criminal justice systems, including forensic examiner, case consultant, expert witness, and forensic clinician. Learn about the training and credentialing of forensic psychologists and the practicalities of pursuing a part- or full-time career in forensic psychology. Areas of application include personal injury and disability, family law, civil and criminal competencies, criminal penalties, juvenile justice, police psychology, the insanity defense, and the death penalty. Finally, applications of psychology to the wider aspects of civil rights and a just society will be highlighted.
